

JOB DESCRIPTION

- Visit sites, take note of necessary information and report to project manager. Determine existing site conditions and prepares site analysis studies.
- Research feasibility of alternative design approaches, based upon client's specifications, site conditions, government specifications or regulations, for incorporation into layout.
- Prepare 3D and renderings.
- Prepare separate detailed site plan, material plan, grading and drainage plans, paving plan, planting plan, general and detailed sections, detailed drawings, and construction details.
- Observes construction projects to determine if landscape work is followed according to plans and specifications.
- Consults vendors for updating research library or obtaining material samples and/or technical literature.
- Perform other tasks as assigned by team leader and manager.

JOB REQUIREMENTS

- Bachelor Degree in Landscape Architecture/Architecture or relating field
- Strong freehand illustration and rendering skills
- Proficiency with AutoCAD, Adobe Creative Suite, Lumion or SketchUp
- Revit is a plus
- 3D model and rendering skills
- Proficiency in MS Office Suite as well as overall strong computer proficiency
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills
- Ability to work in a team environment
- Over 3 years of experience in Landscape Architecture/Architecture or relating field is a plus

BENEFITS

- Negotiable salary.
- Salary review every year bases on staff performance.
- Annual company trip
- 13th month basic salary according to the company's finance
- 14 days of annual leave and Holidays, New Year leave, maternity leave according to the Labour Code
- Have the opportunity to maximize and develop the ability in an energetic, professional, international and competitive working environment.