

JOB DESCRIPTION

- Able to produce drawings for approval & construction using BIM software
- Provide technical support to the Design team regarding 3D modeling
- To assist the Design team in their review of the design output across different disciplines based on each milestone.
- To coordinate 3D collaboration among project team, clients and other consultants.
- Assist design manager to make the design meet project milestones.
- Perform other tasks as assigned by team leader and manager.
- Facilitate construction by applying BIM and CAD technologies in the design phase.
- Offer cross-team support for BIM software.
- Ensure all models are compatible and BIM data is available to all project participants.

JOB REQUIREMENTS

- Bachelor Degree in Landscape Architecture/ Architecture or relating field
- An expert understanding of the functionalities in multiple 3D design Software (Revit Architecture/MEP/Structure, AutoCAD Civil, Navisworks, Synchro,..)
- Ability to work in a team environment
- Please include portfolio to be considered
- At least 3 years experience working with Revit

BENEFITS

- Negotiable salary.
- Salary review every year bases on staff performance.
- 13th month basic salary according to the company's finance
- 24 days leave per year (including: 14 days vacation, 10 holiday)
- Have the opportunity to maximize and develop the ability in an energetic, professional, international and competitive working environment.